Dear Member of the public

Freedom of Information Request Reference N^{o}: FOI

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk Constabulary on the 30th August 2011. As explained in the previous response although this was logged as one request we feel that it is better answered in 3 separate responses. This response relates to questions 3 and 4 of your request where you have sought access to the following information:

3 Information relating to the total cost of the police investigation into the CRU UEA email hacking / leak.

4 Information relating to the number of police and support staff currently engaged in the investigation into the CRU UEA email hacking / leak.

Norfolk Constabulary holds information relevant to your request.

Response to your Request

Norfolk Constabulary has located the following information as relevant to your request.

Response to part 3 of your request

Norfolk Constabulary responded to a Freedom of Information request in May 2011 detailing the cost per month of the investigation into the acquisition of data from the University of East Anglia Climatic Research Unit. This is available to view on the disclosure log pages of the Norfolk Constabulary website.

Under Section 21(1) of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), public authorities are not required to provide information that is reasonably accessible to the public by other means, in this case via the Norfolk Constabulary website therefore in accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), this serves as a Refusal Notice for this part of your request.

Please use the link below to access the relevant page of the website. The document number from May 2011 is 595/10/11.

No further costs have been incurred since this disclosure was made.

Response to part 4 of your request

There are currently no police officers or police staff, within Norfolk Constabulary, working full time on the investigation into the acquisition of data from the computers at the University of East Anglia Climatic Research Unit. The Senior Investigating Officer (SIO) and the Deputy/SIO retain responsibility and resources are allocated if and when necessary.

This response will be published on the Norfolk Constabulary's web-site www.norfolk.police.uk under the Freedom of Information pages at Publication Scheme - Disclosure Logs.

Should you have any further queries concerning this request, please contact me quoting the reference number shown above.
