Dear

Freedom of Information Request Reference N<sup>o</sup>: FOI 001981/16

I write in connection with your request for information received by the Norfolk Constabulary on the 12th May 2016 in which you sought access to the following information:

- 1 The number of possession of cannabis arrests recorded in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015.
- 2 The number of possession of cannabis offences and people proceeded against for possession of cannabis in 2011, 2012, 2013, 2014, and 2015. This data should show both the number of offences, and the number of "outcomes" for cannabis possession offences in each year (e.g. fixed penalty notice, caution, charge etc).

Norfolk Constabulary holds information relevant to your request.

Response to your Request

When responding to a request for information under the terms of the Freedom of Information Act, a public authority is not obliged to provide information if the authority estimates that the cost of the retrieval of the information requested would be in excess of £450 (equivalent to 18 hours work).

The costs criteria relates to a request in its entirety, which means that if we cannot retrieve all of the information requested within the costs limit, we are not obliged to retrieve any of the information requested.

The Norfolk Constabulary estimates that to retrieve all the information you have requested would exceed cost in excess of £450.

In order to establish what information is held, relevant to your request, we have contacted our Joint Performance and Analysis Department. They have advised that with regard to part 1 of your request, the custody database does not record the specific offences in an easily retrievable format. The custody record would show that the arrest was in relation to a 'drug offence'. It would be necessary to review each of these to see which relate to possession of cannabis.

During the period of your request, there were over 6,000 arrests for 'drug offences'. To review each of these would exceed the appropriate limit for dealing with a Freedom of Information request, in terms of costs, and therefore Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act applies.

Section 12(1) of the Freedom of Information Act states that a public authority is not obliged to:

“...comply with a request for information if the authority estimates that the cost of complying with the request would exceed the appropriate limit”.

The Freedom of Information (Appropriate Limit and Fees) Regulations 2004, defines the ‘appropriate limit’ for the Norfolk Constabulary as £450, and specifies that this sum equates to 18 hours work at a standard rate of £25 per hour.

In accordance with Section 17 of the Freedom of Information Act (2000), this serves as a Refusal Notice for your request.

Advice & Assistance

Although excess cost removes the Constabulary’s obligations under the Freedom of Information Act, as a gesture of goodwill, I have supplied information, relevant to your request, which was retrieved or available before it was realised that the fees limit would be exceeded. I trust this is helpful, but it does not affect our legal right to rely on the fees regulations for the remainder of your request.

The Joint Performance and Analysis Department has provided figures for the number of crimes of cannabis possession where the offender has been either cautioned or charged. Please note the figures below have been extracted from the Constabulary’s crime database which was in use up until 19th October 2015 only.
